

Isabella is a freshman from Lexington, Massachusetts. She is passionate about her violin playing, figure skating, and writing. She wants to continue to grow in all these things and enhance her knowledge and abilities. Some of her hobbies are reading and debate. Isabella enjoys helping her community and advocating for the environment.