

Hi my name is Anika Lee and some of my interests are art and piano. I chose to join this program because I wanted to help support these students as they prepare to transition to life in America. I focused on helping them strengthen their English skills and gain confidence in a new learning environment. It has been incredibly meaningful to give back in a way that helps create more opportunities for their future.